Code of Conduct one step closer

The Commissioner for Financial Advisers David Mayhew yesterday submitted the Code of Professional Conduct for financial advisers to the Minister of Commerce Simon Power for final approval. The Commissioner's letter to the Minister is available here and the Code itself is available here.

The Commissioner had earlier rejected the draft Code put forward by the Code Committee on the grounds that it was inconsistent with the Financial Advisers Act 2008 in three respects.

The Code Committee subsequently reconvened and resubmitted the Code to the Commissioner on 19 August 2010. Our news alert outlining the differences in the latest version of the Code and its previous version is available here.
